

Europe's #1 Party band

After hitting the charts with the world famous 'I Will Survive' version, the band became famous rapidly. Years later, after many more hits, the Hermes House Band International is an all-professional band, used to play for small groups to large, even very large crowds.

We keep your party going!

In more than 20 years time, Hermes House Band has become Europe's #1 Party Band, with over 8 million records sold in more than 25 countries. HHB plays all year round, entertaining masses all over the world. Their singles "I will survive", "Country roads", "Live is life" and "Rhythm of the night" have reached the highest chart positions in numerous countries.

Rotterdam 1984 - A group of students decide to start a band. They play their first gig in their student fraternity "Hermes". It marks the birth of the "Hermes House Band" and the beginning of an unbelievable journey... In 1994 their independently released single "I will survive/ lalala" became a Dutch #1 hit, soon followed by other European countries.

Lead singers Jop Wijlacker and Sally Flissingier are still going strong at the front. Together with five brilliant musicians they keep the party going. After twenty years of experience, they will survive!
